

In Loving Memory of Julie Little

September 9, 1960 - October 13, 2024

Julie was a gifted chef, a gracious host, and a cherished friend to all who knew her. Her love for food and fellowship came alive in her work at the Blue Ribbon Cooking School, where she shared her culinary talents and inspired others to find joy in the art of cooking.

At home, Julie delighted in bringing people together. Her home and backyard were often filled with laughter, the aroma of her delicious dishes, and the warmth of her generous hospitality. She believed that a shared meal could nourish both body and soul. She frequently held amazing wood-fired pizza parties in her backyard to support programs for those in her community.

A lover of beauty and creativity, Julie collected eclectic modern art, thoughtfully displaying each piece throughout her home—creating spaces that reflected her vibrant spirit and keen sense of style.

Guided by deep faith, Julie lived her life with grace, compassion, and a steadfast commitment to serving others. Her Catholic faith was the foundation of her generosity and her kindness, always giving back to her community and those in need.

Julie is deeply missed and lovingly remembered for her joyful heart, her fantastic food, and her generosity to others.

"I know that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to do good while they live. That each of them may eat and drink and find satisfaction in all their toil. - this is a gift from God."
